Pro Bono Counsel for Plaintiff
Lisa Colmery-Pinkerton

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

LISA ANN COLMERY-PINKERTON,
Plaintiff,

v.

DEPUTY JOSHUA CARRASCO, et al.,
Defendant.

Case No. 13-CV-1928-JFW (PLAx)
The Hon. John F. Walter

JUDGMENT

This action came to trial on June 14, 2016, through June 15, 2016 in the above-entitled court, Courtroom 16, the Honorable John F. Walter presiding. L. David Russell, Mara R. Ludmer, and Peter Goldschmidt of Jenner & Block LLP appeared as attorneys for Plaintiff Lisa Colmery-Pinkerton. Stephanie J. Tanada and Arthur K. Cunningham of Lewis Brisbois Bisgaard & Smith LLP appeared as attorneys for Defendant Deputy Joshua Carrasco.

Trial commenced on June 14, 2016. A jury of eight members was empaneled, witnesses were called and testified, evidence was admitted, and the jury instructed.

JUDGMENT

1 On June 15, 2016, the jury returned a verdict, filed redacted as Court Document No.
2 179 and unredacted as Court Document No. 182.

3 As to Plaintiff Lisa Colmery-Pinkerton's claim of improper detention, brought
4 under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, the jury rendered a verdict finding that the defendant did not
5 detain the plaintiff without probable cause.

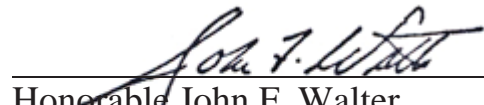

6 As to Plaintiff Lisa Colmery-Pinkerton's claim of excessive force, brought
7 under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, the jury rendered a verdict finding that the defendant did not
8 use unreasonable force on the plaintiff.

9 As to Plaintiff Lisa Colmery-Pinkerton's claim of improper search, brought
10 under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, the jury rendered a verdict finding that the defendant's search
11 of the plaintiff was not unreasonable.

12 Therefore, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED as follows:

13 That final judgment be entered in favor of defendant Joshua Carrasco. Plaintiff
14 shall take nothing by reason of her complaint.
